Bio:

Cassie Brown is a Partner in Coleman Talley's Jacksonville, Florida office. Cassie predominantly represents real estate developers and her practice centers on commercial real estate transactions with a particular emphasis on affordable housing. Cassie has an expertise in complex real estate matters including all things title, survey, and title insurance -- including curative title issues, bolstered by her background in title insurance claims. Prior to joining Coleman Talley, Cassie worked as a Senior Claims Counsel - Vice President at Fidelity National Title Group. Cassie is also a founding member, Board of Director, and Secretary for the Florida Women's Affordable Housing Network, where she enjoys connecting with and supporting women in the industry.

In addition to her legal career, Cassie is passionate about supporting women in the industry and in the workforce overall. As a mother of young children with a demanding career, Cassie enjoys mentoring other women on work-life balance, organization and time-management, as well as leadership and mentoring in the work setting.
