Speaker Description

Joyce Perry is the Vice President of Human Resources for Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing. She is responsible for developing strategies and providing advice on all talent and culture matters. She drives HR initiatives to foster a positive, inclusive, high-performance work environment in support of OCCH's goals. She came to OCCH in 2021 with a twenty-year history in HR, spanning industries ranging from healthcare and technology, to real estate and affordable housing. Joyce is a Senior Professional of Human Resources (SPHR certified), SHRM Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP certified), and a Change Management Specialist (Prosci certified). She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from California State University.

Joyce is an active member of SHRM (Society for Human Resources Management), HRACO (Human Resources Association of Ohio), CCODN (Capital City Organizational Development Network), and ACMP (Association of Change Management Professionals). She is passionate about her community, volunteering for the Mid-Ohio Food Collective, Habitat for Humanity, Franklin County Humane Society, and Per Scholas' Workforce Readiness Program.
