

Morgan Mansa

Deputy Director of Housing | Wake County Government

Raleigh, NC

morgan.mansa@ncwahn.org

Work Location:

Regional

My company will cover travel costs:

Yes

Area of Expertise:

- Community Development
- Government Agency
- Policy

Topic/Detail on Expertise:

I've been the director of county and city housing departments and the ED of a nonprofit organization all of which intersect with community development, public policy, local government & nonprofit management.

Preferred Presentation Format:

- Conference Panel
- Virtual Presentation
- Podcast

Bio:

Morgan Mansa is the Deputy Director of Housing for Wake County. In this role she leads the affordable housing development, preservation, permanent supportive housing, homelessness, and veteran services teams for Wake County to ensure that residents have equitable access to high-quality housing and related resources. Prior positions include Director of Housing and Community Partnerships for Cary, North Carolina, Executive Director of Nashville's Housing Trust Fund, Senior Policy Advisor for the Tennessee Housing Development Agency, and Executive Director of the Chicago Area Fair Housing Alliance. Morgan received a BA in Sociology and Master of Public Policy & Administration from Northwestern University.