

Kimberly Latimer-Nelligan
CEO | Low Income Investment Fund
New York City, NY
klatimer-nelligan@liifund.org

Work Locations

National

My company will cover travel costs?

Yes

Area of Expertise

- Community Development
- DEI&B
- Finance/Banking/Lender

Topic/Details on Expertise

CDFI- Lending and Child Care businesses, Risk Management and Strategy and Development

Preferred Presentation Format

- Conference Panel
- Virtual Presentation

Speaker Description

Ms. Latimer-Nelligan is Chief Operating Officer of the Low Income Investment Fund (LIIF) and is responsible for oversight of LIIF's Lending and Child Care businesses, Risk Management and Strategy and Development. Under her leadership, LIIF has launched its $50MM commitment to greening community facilities. LIIF has also recently won a $10MM grant from New York State to establish and manage a Fresh Foods program. Ms. Latimer-Nelligan's background in community development is extensive. Before joining LIIF in July 2008, she was with Citibank for over 20 years. Most recently Ms. Latimer-Nelligan served as the Managing Director of National Lending and Investments, overseeing a $3 billion business within Citibank Community Development. During Ms. Latimer-Nelligan's tenure at Citibank, Citi's national lending, structured finance and equity investments for community development were consolidated under her leadership. In addition, she successfully organized and established Citi's program in charter schools. Ms. Latimer-Nelligan serves on the Board of Directors for La Raza Development Fund and the Community Reinvestment Fund (CRF). She also serves as CRF's Vice Chair. She received her B.A. from Hobart and William Smith Colleges and her M.B.A. from Columbia University.